DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

1. Claims 1, 4, 6, 7, 9, and 12 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Morita et al. (2002/0135595).
2. As in claim 1, Morita et al. teaches of a color adjustment device for a plasma display panel, figure 11 item 2b, paragraph 198-203, comprising: a look up table, wherein the look up table stores a plurality of gray scale data, figure 11 item 21a, selects a data from the plurality of gray scale data according to a received gray scale input value, then outputs the selected gray scale data, figure 11 item 21a, paragraph 198-199, and an error diffusion circuit, receiving the gray scale data output from the look up table to perform an error adjustment, figure 11 item 22, paragraph 201. Wherein input signals VD are added to by error information according to converted grayscale information from gray level conversion table 21a, said table corresponding to said look up table.

3. As in claim 4, Morita et al. teaches of a color adjustment method for a plasma display panel, figure 11 item 2b, paragraph 198-203, comprising the steps of: receiving a gray scale input value that is within a first range, paragraph 199; converting the gray scale input value into a gray scale data that is greater than the gray scale input value, moreover the gray scale data is within a second range, paragraph 199; and displaying the gray scale data as a brightness that is within a third range by using an error diffusion method, figure 11 item 22, wherein the number of integers in the third range is less than the number of integers in the second range, figure 17 gray level 16.
4. As in claim 6, Morita et al. teaches of, wherein the step of converting the gray scale input value into the gray scale data further comprises: providing a look up table, figure 11 item 21a, querying the gray scale data that corresponds to the gray scale input value from the look up table, paragraph 199 and 254.
5. As in claim 7, Morita et al. teaches of, wherein a maximum integer of the third range is an integer portion of a quotient from a maximum integer of the second range divided by a predetermined value, figure 17 grey level 16, paragraphs 218-221.
6. As in claim 9, Morita et al. teaches of a color adjustment method for a plasma display panel, comprising the steps of: receiving a gray scale input value that is an integer, paragraphs 199 and 254; converting the gray scale input value into a corresponding gray scale data, figure 11 item 21a; and adjusting a brightness display according to the gray scale data, paragraph 199 and 254; wherein, the gray scale input: value has a one--to-one corresponding relationship to the gray scale data, paragraph 199 and 254, moreover if a range that gray scale data appears in comprises N integers and a brightness range to be adjusted comprises M integers, then $N > M$, column 11 lines 45-67, figure 17 grey level 16.

7. As in claim 12, Morita et al. teaches of, wherein the gray scale data is obtained from a query to a look up table according to the gray scale input value, paragraph 199 and 254.

Response to Arguments

8. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1, 4, 6, 7, 9, and 12 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection. See the above rejection over Morita et al.

Allowable Subject Matter

9. Claims 2, 3, 8, 10, and 13 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims. Wherein the specific limitations of said error diffusion circuit, figure 1 item 120, comprising said adding, multiplying, subtracting, and dividing of gray scale data is not found in the prior art of record in any combination including the other limitation of the claims.

Conclusion

10. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. 2003/0038953, 2002/0015010.
11. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a). A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37

CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
